2009

Chardonnay

El Jabalí Vineyard ~ Sta. Rita Hills

As vibrant and luminous as watching the sun rise over the Sea of Cortez, sitting on a pristine beach among seashells and sand-dollars, tropical clouds above radiating their sky-blue pinkness, the air still cool from the night and the water surface mirror-smooth. Apple-y, citrus-y, minerally pure classic Chardonnay, a little bit bread-y, like a fresh bolillo from the panaderia... this is another offering out of the heritage vines here at Rancho El Jabalí. This wine would be very at home with a myriad of seafood and shellfish (Baja-style fish tacos, ceviche, fritto misto); tempura, lighter-style curries, satays; Thai BBQ chicken with green papaya salad... or just open a bag of salt-and-pepper Kettle Chips and pour the wine and be happy in the moment...
