2004

Chardonnay

Santa Barbara County

Shying-away from the overtly oaky style of some California Chardonnay, this version shows more of the fruit and acid highlights of the grape variety, especially as these grapes were grown in cool climate conditions. Brisk and clean, with a racy mineral streak running through classic apple and pear flavors, and elements of lemon and honey; this is a chardonnay that is particularly food friendly. Sea scallops, chicken in creamy sauce(s), pork with apples & sage, quiches, frittatas...
