WINERY & VINEYARDS™

2007

Pinot Blanc

Sta. Rita Hills

No malolactic and relatively brief aging in used oak barrels keeps this wine very true to its grapey fruitiness... Fresh white flowers show first in the aroma of the wine, leading to pear and melon with some vanilla-nutmeg spiciness... there's a lemon-crème quality in there with a hint of white pepper, altogether exotic and complex...

Citrusy fish preparations would be good with this wine, also some types of soup (clam chowder with a little spice), lighter pastas, roasted chicken, etc.
