2009

Pinot Noir

Sta. Rita Hills

Holy wow! ... talk about your “brooding and mysterious”! This puts the Noir into Pinot, big-time. Noir = black. Black knight, black rose, black Stetson, a black cape, that little black dress... Like a dark storm on the horizon while you are still in sunlight... Orson Welles in “Touch of Evil”... wolves howling in the forested night but we’re safe here in the castle as guests of the Count, who’s just poured us this dark rich wine... Smoothly woven black-fruit flavors and aromas, black spices, hints of licorice and dark cocoa... Perfect with anything beefy: braised, stewed, roasted, or grilled; lamb kebabs or meatballs; blackened fish; porcini risotto... just a few possible menu suggestions.
